FOREIGN NEWS.

Monday arrived the Mails from France and Flanders.

STOCKHOLM, July 31. We have had for some Days past such excessive Heats, as have not been felt in this Kingdom since the great Drought in 1719. The Air is filled with a Kind of Mist, or thick Smoak, which smells of Burning; and there has been found on the Banks of several Lakes a great Quantity of dead Fishes.

Dresden, Aug. 1. Letters from Dantzick confirm, that Duke Ferdinand of Courland continues in good Health. —Also, that the Jesuits have begun again to disturb the Protestants of Thorn, by new Citations, and that it was feared this Affair would have mischievous Consequences.

Hamburg, Aug. 8. Our last Advices from Mosco import, that the Duke of Liria, Embassador of Spain, had not only received Orders to continne there, but also to employ his utmost Skill to hinder that Court from sending the 30,000 Men promised to the Emperor: Other Advices from the same City say, that the Czarina had declared, that if those 30,000 Men were not sufficient for the Emperor's Service, she had 30,000 more, ready to assist him, whenever he should have Occasion.——From Berlin we learn, that innumerable Swarms of Locusts are ravaging and miserably destroying that whole Neighbourhood.

Vienna, Aug. 2. The 27th of last Month the Ministers of the Emperor had a long Conference on the Affairs of the present Juncture; and it is assured, that the chief Subject of their Deliberations turned on the Advices the Court has received, that the King of Sardinia seems inclined to accede to the Treaty of Seville, and that he has refused the Imperial Troops a Passage thro' his Dominions.

Barcelona, July 30. We wait only for the last Orders from the Court to begin the Imbarcation of the Troops, every thing being ready for that Purpose, the Transport Vessels, the Provisions and Ammunitions of War, the Tents, Instruments, Bridges and Pontons; and, in a Word, all that is necessary for that Enterprize. All the Battalions that are to imbark are compleat, each consisting of 750 Men; the Cavalry is likewise compleat, and in a very good Condition. It is computed, that with the Vessels expected from Cadiz, Malaga, and some other Places, the Fleet will make 500 Sail, without including the Vessels of the Allies; and that they may put to Sea by the 2th of next Month.

Cologn, Aug. 11. The King of Prussia and the Prince-Royal arrived here this Morn. from Frankfort, on which Occasion all the Citizens were under Arms, and there was a Triple Discharge of all our Artillery. His Majesty is accompanied by Count Seckendorf, Maj. Gen. Balenbrock, with the Colonels Waldan and Krocker; his whole Retinue consists of 44 Persons.

Paris, Aug. 7. The 31st past, a Courier was dispatched to Vienna, with the King of Spain's Reply to the Emperor's Answer to the Final Resolution of the Allies of Seville. His Catholic Majesty absolutely refuses to desist, in any Manner, from the Introduction of Spanish Garrisons into Tuscany, and will undertake this Year the Expedition of Italy, even tho' the promised Succours should not arrive in Time; and it is believed that as soon as the above-mentioned Express is returned from the Court of Vienna, the said Succours would be sent to Spain, if the Emperor refuses to consent to the Introduction of Spanish Troops.

Part of a private Letter from the Hague; dated August 11. N. S.

From Compeigne we are assured, by very good Hands, that the Cardinal-Minister's present Martial Disposition (his Pacific Mood being quite vanished) has greatly retrieved his Credit with the Princes of the Blood, and the principal Lords of the old Court; who began very much to dislike his Procedure.——And from Vienna, under July 29, we learn, that after the Emperor had dispatched his last Answer to the Court of France, his Imperial Majesty had no other Course to pursue, than that of his Military Preparations. Accordingly, in a great Council held there the 27th, it was resolved to send 14,000 more Men to Italy, where will be the Seat of the War; but as there are several Reasons why Hungary should not be drained too much, it is throught the Kings of Poland and Prussia, with whom his Imperial Majesty has particular Engagements, will furnish the Number of Troops above-mentioned.——His Imperial Majesty is casting about which way to redeem the important Places upon the Adriatic and in Friula, which are mortgaged to the Venetians. The Truth is, they could never be of greater Service to him than at present, as well for the Passage of his Men to Italy, as on account of the Situation of Affairs in that Country.——The Court of Vienna still pretends to have a perfect Information of all that passes at that of Spain. By their List of the Spanish Fleet for the Expedition lately received, they say it is to consist of 12 Men of War of the Line, carrying 808 Guns, 7 Frigat, which have 316 Guns, and two Barks with 32; in all, 1140 Guns. The Forces of Imbarcation are to be 37,800 Foot, and 6750 Horse, making together 44,550 Men.——Don Manoel Prince of Portugal, who is actually arrived in Poland, on his Way to the Court of Russia, is going (if we are rightly informed) to attempt a Marriage with the Princess Proscovia Iwanowna, Presumptive Heir to the Throne, after the Death of her Eldest Sister the present Czarina, if that Princess should happen to die without marrying again and leaving Issue. The Emperor has not yet quite dropped the Design he formed some Years ago, to get him elected King of Poland, since there is no Likelihood of succeeding in Favour of the Electoral Prince of Saxony: But as it will require three or four Millions of Florins to do effectually the Prince of Portugal's Business in Poland, we cannot conceive who will be at that Expence.——None here seems to doubt of the Emperor's Connivance in the Affair of the Duke of Mecklemburg's Return to his own Domains. His Imperial Majesty has his Reasons at present for this Piece of Complaisance to the Court of Russia, which it is generally believed will support the Duke against the Imperial Commission, if there be Occasion.——The Emperor will shortly publish his Resolution concerning the Merchants of Neuremberg.——The Proceeding against the Sodomites in this Province are, at it were, terminated by the Citation of the Absentees; and thus this Affair, which has done some Hurt at Amsterdam, is at an End: Nor will it be revived in Zealand, for particular Reasons. Baron R——— is retired to Altena; Monsieur M——n to Paris; Mynheer S—— to Venice: But what is become of the Heers K———n and R———n, rich Merchants of Amsterdam, we know not.——Also from Compeigne, by other Hands we learn, that the Answer given to Count Koningsek, was what the Imperial Court will call dry (seche.) It imported, "That it was a sensible Mortification to "see, that all the Pains that had been taken to avoid a "War, had proved ineffectual; and that the Emperor per-"sists in his Resolution to shed Christian Blood on so slight "an Occasion: But that since they are forced to it, his "Imperial Majesty will soon be convinced, that France and "her Allies permitted the late Delays purely for the Sake "of Peace, and not out of any Distrust of Success in the "Justice of their Cause." This Answer was made with the greater Firmness, because the Cabinet-Courier Bannieres, who lately arrived from Spain, brought the last Resolution of her Catholic Majesty, intimating, "That she "will not lose a Moment's Time more, nor be the Dupe "of the Court of Vienna: That every Thing is ready; "and that if she is abandoned by her Allies, she will try if "she is not strong enough to act without them, &c."—— In effect, Orders are sent to Marseilles and Toulon, to get all Matters ready for imbarking at an Hour's Warning. Nevertheless, Count Koningsek says nothing of his Departure; which strengthens the Notion, that he has secret Orders to clap up an Accommodation as soon as he sees Things in extremis, and that France is in earnest.

Extract of a Private Letter from Dresden, dated August 9. N. S.

The Nuptials of the Countess of Orzelska, the King of Poland's Natural Daughter, and the Prince of Holsteyn-Beck, are to be celebrated To-morrow, the Preparations for them having employed a great many Hands for a Fortnight past; so that it may be said the like was scarce ever known for the Settlement of a Natural Daughter, as for this young Lady, for whom the King has a particular Affection.—— Since this Marriage was agreed on, several new Theatrical Pieces have been written, as well as rich Habits made for the Actors and Actresses who are to perform them. One of those Pieces is to be acted for the first Time the Day after To-morrow; and there are to be no less than eight different Interludes on this Occasion.—— Every one seems pleased with this Match, which seemed very dubious for a long while; insomuch, that if the King had not resolved to admit of no Denial, it had never taken Place: For that young Lady used all her Efforts to break off her Engagements with the said Prince, and raised a thousand Difficulties and Objections to gain her Point, which the poor Prince surmounted by his Patience and Perseverance. He might well be called poor Prince; for since he abjured the Religion of his Ancestors, about six Years ago, at Vienna, and embraced that of the Church of Rome, with a View to make his Fortune at the Imperial Court, wherein however he miscarried, he has been abandoned by all his Family, and led a miserable Life, till the King of Poland generously granted him a Pension of 100 Ducats per Month, which was no great Matter for a Prince: But upon this Marriage he will come into a very great Fortune at once; for besides the Countess's Money and Jewels, his Majesty has resolved to settle a considerable Estate upon them, and to honour that Prince with the highest Employments. Besides the Blue Ribbon which he gave him, at Leypsick Fair, last Easter, to which is annexed an annual Income of 6000 Crowns, we are told Prince Lubomirski will be revailed to resign to him his Post of Major-General of the Guards, in Consideration of something better in Poland.

Wednesday arrived the Mails from France and Holland.

Extract of a Private Letter from Vienna, dated Aug 5. N. S.

This Court has received Advice, that the Enterprise of the Spaniards will terminate this Year with endeavouring to make themselves Masters of Final: And that they seriously think of making the Island of Corsica their Place of Arms, and from thence, early in the Spring, to fall either upon Tuscany or Sicily. His Imperial Majesty has sent Orders for inquiring into this Account; and if it proves true, Endeavours will be used to persuade the Republic of Genoa to furnish Transports to carry a Body of Imperialists over to that Island, to oppose a Descent of the Spaniards, who without Doubt would favour the Rebels.——Frequent Councils are held in the Emperor's Presence, to consider of Ways and Means to raise Money for maintaining the Troops, the present Funds being well nigh exhausted; which is one Reason why no more Haste is made to bring the 30,000 Russians into Hungary. They chuse rather to raise some new Regiments in that Kingdom, which will be less expensive. It is still reported, that P. Eugene is to go a Journey, and most People think it will be to Turin, to take certain Measures with the K. of Sardinia; which would not fail to give the Spaniards and their Allies much Uneasiness, whether he succeeds or not.——Gen. Waterborn is making ready to set out for Italy; from whence they write, that Gen. Philippi, who is at Turin, has not yet been able to effectuate any Thing in Favour of the Imperial Court. ——From Dresden we have a Confirmation of the absolute Conclusion of the Marriage between the Countess of Orzelska, his Polish Majesty's Natural Daughter and the Duke of Holsteyn, whose Nuptials are to be celebrated the 10th of this Month. The Marriage of Duke Ferdinand of Courland with a Saxon Princess, Niece of the Duke of Weissenfels, is also confirmed. And from Mosco we are assured, that Gen. Lacy, who commands the Russian Forces, which are designed for the Emperor's Service, was quite ready for a March, and waits only for the last Orders.

Rome, July 29. Marquis D'Ormea, the K. of Sardinia's Minister, went in Ceremony, some Days past, to have Audience of the Pope, and, in the Name of the King his Master, demanded, that his Holiness would be so good as to confirm all that the last Pope had done in relation to him and his Concerns: But the Pontiff dryly returned; Benedict XIII. is now dead, and Cardinal Corsini Pope: But you may depend that every Thing shall be examined with the strictest Justice. The Marquis looked very chagrin upon this Answer, which shews that the Holy Father is not so old, but he has some Fire left. Afterwards that Minister went to the Datary Signor Valenti, to recommend some vacant Churches to the Nomination of his Sardinian Majesty; but he had no better Luck there neither; for after he had waited a long while in the Anti-Chamber, Word was sent him: "That the Datary-Office was not open; "and that nothing could be done in this Affair without the "Pope's Consent."——When the Pope was sollicited, one Day this Week, to give to one the two vacant Canonries in the Churches of S. Peter and the Lateran, to a Florentine Abbot; his Holiness asked; "Whether it was u-"sual to find a Roman among the Canons of Florence?" And being answered, No; Just so, said he, it is at Rome; and immediately gave one of the Stalls to Abbot Astalli, and the other to Abbot Cenci.——Cardinal Cosicia is at last come out of his Cell, and returned to his own Palace.—— At the private and public Consistories, lately held by his Holiness, divers Promotions were made, but no Cardinals Hats disposed of: But Cardinals Fini and Cosicia did not assist at the last, held two Days since; it having been intimated to their said Eminencies; "That they would do "well not to appear at any Congregation, till farther "Orders." The Grand Provost, at the Head of 25 Sbirri, and accompanied by a Judge and a Notary, went, the 25th Inst. to the House of S. Prati, whence (having first ſealed up his other Effects) they conveyed away to Caſtle S. Angelo all his Papers, together with 100,000 Scudi in Specie. Thence they went to S. Saſſi, whom they took and conducted to Priſon: All his Papers were alſo ſecured. The Roman Princes having intreated his Holineſs, to fix the Days and Hours when he would be pleaſed to give public Audiences, that they might attend in his Anti-Chamber preciſely at the proper Times, &c. the Pontiff gave them to underſtand; "That they might come thither "whenever they thought fit; ſince he was always ready "to give Audience, without fixing any particular Times "for it."—S. Sacripanti having, the other Day, ſent a curious Silver Box as a Preſent to Prince Corſini, his Holineſs's Nephew, he returned it, with Thanks for his kind Intention; but ſaid "His only Care was to pleaſe the Pope his "Uncle."

Florence, July 29. The Grand Duke has publiſhed an Order, requiring all his Subjects to ſtop all German Deſerters, who may come for Refuge into his Dominions, and ſend them back to their Quarters. The Imperial Troops which are in Lunegiana are conſiderably reinforced; but they obſerve exact Diſcipline, and pay for what they have.

Paris, Aug. 19. The 13th, the King, after being at the Salutation in the Church of the Jacobins, went to the new Bridge building at Compeigne, which is to be called Pont Royal: His Majeſty put on an Apron fringed with Gold, and taking up a Silver Trowel out of a Baſon of Silver full of Mortar, laid the firſt Stone, the hollow Part whereof was filled with Medals of Gold, Silver and Copper: Over this was a Braſs Plate, with an Inſcription on it; and ſoldered. Laſt Week the Benedictines of the Royal Abbey of St. Corneille held a Chapter, in which they accepted the Conſtitution Unigenitus.——The Day of the Death of the Dutcheſs of Brunſwick, the Commiſſary Le Compte ſealed up, in Preſence of the Miniſters of the Emperor, and the Duke of Modena, her Apartments in the Palace of Luxenburg, and next Day her Houſe of Annieres. By her Death 120,000 Livres Annuity falls to the Duke: Her Serene Highneſs has left large Legacies to moſt of her Officers and Domeſtics.

HOME NEWS.

FRIDAY, Aug. 7. The French Mail which arrived Yeſterday, brings the following Abſtract of the Treaty lately concluded, by Mr. John Ruſſel, with Mulei Abdallah, the preſent Emperor of Morocco, &c. ſaid to be publiſhed at Gibraltar. Viz. That all Moors and Jews, Subjects of his ſaid Mauritanian Imperial Majeſty, ſhall be at Liberty to trade in the City of Gibraltar and in the Iſland of Minorca: That they ſhall have Permiſſion to ſtay there 30 Days, every Time they bring Merchandizes from Barbary, or come to buy European Goods there: That the Subjects of the King of Great-Britain, who, to carry on their Trade, ſhall be obliged to reſide in the Dominions of the ſaid Emperor, ſhall not be conſtrained, in caſe of any Conteſts with the Inhabitants, to appear before the Cadi, or Judge: And that none but the Governor of the Place where they reſide, and the Conſul of the Engliſh Nation, ſhall have Power to take Cognizance of ſuch Conteſts, or Differences: That the Subjects of his Britannic Majeſty, both Engliſh and Hanoverians, who ſhall be taken by the Sallee, &c. Rovers, on board any Veſſel whatever, ſhall be releaſed and ſent to Gibraltar: That the Engliſh Commiſſaries ſhall be permitted to buy Proviſions, and whatever elſe they may want, both for the Engliſh Ships of War and the Garriſon of Gibraltar, in all the Ports of Morocco, at the current Market Price; and that theſe Proviſions ſhall be carried on board the Engliſh Ships without paying any Duty for Exportation. All the other Articles of this Treaty confirm that which was concluded by his late Majeſty George I. and Mulei Iſhmael, the preſent Emperor's Father.——By the ſame Letters we learn, that a Spaniſh Galliot had lately taken an Algerine Bark, after an obſtinate Fight, wherein 50 Moors were killed.——"Tho' no Men-"tion is made of the Number of Spaniards killed in this "obſtinate Diſpute, we are, however, to ſuppoſe the "Conquerors did not come off quite ſcot-free in this Ren-"counter: But this needs not ſurpriſe us, ſince a very "grave Spaniſh Hiſtorian ſcruples not to aver, that San "Jago was ſeen fighting at the Head of the Chriſtian Ar-"my, at a famous Battel againſt the Infidels in Spain, "where the Moors loſt at leaſt 200,000 Men, and the Spa-"niards ſcarce 20: And in another bloody Rencounter the "Odds were ſtill more diſproportionate."——Theſe Advices farther ſay, that, Mulei Abdallah, far from being dead, as was reported, is marched againſt his rebellious Subjects, at the Head of a powerful Army; and that Sheikh L'Arabi, one of the Chiefs of his Opponents, who has under his Command 12 or 15,000 good Troops, has ſubmitted.

Yeſterday, the King and Prince of the Cherakees, ſate the firſt Time, to have their Pictures drawn for his Grace the D. of Montagu. We hear their Majeſties deſign alſo to have the Pourtraits of theſe illuſtrious Americans, Father and Son, at full Length to be put up in Windſor Palace. Orders are iſſued, that they and their Retinue be entertained at the Court's Charge, during their Reſidence in England.——The Names and Titles of theſe Indians are: King Ouka; Prince Caterguſtab; Generaliſſimo Tethtow; General Clogoittah; General Calannah; General Unnowconnow, and Captain Owcannowkah. Their Interpreter is Mr. Rob. Bunning, a Native of Spalding in Lincolnſhire, who reſided 14 Years in South-Carolina their Country. When they took Leave of the Court at Windſor, his Majeſty preſented them with a Purſe of 100 Guineas.

We hear, that her Majeſty is about purchaſing an Eſtate, for 15,000l. at Chiſwich, in the County of Middleſex.

A few Days ſince, at Tunbridge, the Dowager Dutcheſs of Marlborough won 1000l. at Hazard; her Grace holding nine Mains.

The Officer who was appointed to ſuperviſe the Diſtillers about Pall-Mall, &c. has, by the Commiſſioners of the Exciſe, been diſcharged for Neglect of Duty, and the like.

The Earl of Cheſterfield imbarked Yeſterday, at Greenwich, on board the Wm and Mary Yatch, on his Embaſſy to the Court of Holland, whence they write, that his Lordſhip is moſt impatiently expected; and the more, becauſe, as they ſay, a War now begin to ſeem abſolutely unavoidable.

On the other Hand, Baron Sparre, his Swediſh Majeſty's Miniſter, is arrived here, in the Chandos Sloop, from Rotterdam.

But his Excellency the D. of Dorſet, Ld. Lieut. of Ireland, ſets not out, for that Kingdom, before next May.

The Permerluſt and Ter Horſt, the two Dutch Eaſt-India Ships lately taken, by four Algerines, in their Voyage from Holland for Batavia, &c. (of which we gave a very particular Account one of our Regiſters) are returned to the Texell, having loſt the Seaſon, and ſo many of their Neceſſaries, as occaſioned their People to be unwilling to proceed.

From Oxford we learn, that the R. Hon. E. Wilmington, Ld. Privy-Seal, had the Degree of Dr. of Law conferred on him at that Univerſity, in Convocation. The Profeſſor made a very elaborate Speech, when he preſented his Lordſhip to the Vice Chancellor.

SATURDAY, Aug. 8. A fine Marble Monument, of a moſt curious Structure, is about to be put up in the Pariſh Church of St. Magdalen Laver in Eſſex, to the Memory of Wm. Cole, Eſq; late Treaſurer of St. Thomas's Hoſpital, in Southwark.

A Reprieve is gone down to Kingſton upon Thames, in the County of Surrey, for Wm. Gardner, now under Sentence of Death there, for aſſaulting and robbing the Wife of Mr. John Henn, at Thames-Ditton in the ſaid County; and he is to be tranſported, for 14 Years, to ſome one of his Majeſty's American Plantations.

The great Fortune of Miſs Baker (a very deſerving young Lady who died lately, much regretted, at Clapham) devolves to the Crown.

The South-Sea Company's Ship Unicorn, returning from the Whale Fiſhery, run on the Gunfleet, and had inſtantly ſeveral Feet Water in her Hold, having beat off her Sternpoſt; ſo that there is not the leaſt Poſſibility of her being ſaved: She had not caught any Fiſh.

The Blubber and Fins of eight or nine Whales (caught by others of the ſaid Company's Ships arrived from Davis's Streights and Greenland) have been entered at the Cuſtom-houſe: Some more of the Fleet are to come in; what Succeſs they have had is not yet known.

"We are aſſured from good Hands, that what ſo diſtem-"pered the Brain of R. Nutton, and occaſioned his ſtabbing "himſelf, was no other than Love-Melancholy. The Age "of this extraordinary Lover was, we hear, ſcarce 15: "He was Apprentice to one Verney, a Butcher, on Addle-"Hill, near Doctor's-Commons: And the repeated Wounds "he gave himſelf in the Belly, with a Pen-Knife, were ſo "in Earneſt, that his Caul, &c. burſt out, and, which "he ſurvived but a few Days. The Coroners Verdict is, "Lunacy."

"By the laſt Flanders Mails we alſo hear of another odd "Effect of Lunacy; tho' in a Perſon of the contrary Sex, and "much more Experience.——This was a Woman of Lo-"vendegem, within a League of Ghent, who murdered her "three Children; the Eldeſt about ſeven. The only Rea-"ſon ſhe alleges for her ſo doing, is; That ſhe formerly "made a Vow of perpetual Chaſtity, which not being able "to keep, ſhe married: And that ſhe was therefore reſolved "to deprive her Offspring of all Opportunity of incenſing Heaven, "by committing the dreadful Sin of Perjury. She is in "Cuſtody; but the Magiſtrates ſeem puzzled at the Caſe "of this Lunatic.——Theſe unaccountable Fits of Lunacy "ſeem much of a Piece with the Procedure of a certain "late elderly Carpenter, ſomewhere in Kent, not far from "Canterbury, (which I cannot forbear taking Notice of "here, tho' it has been mentioned by others) who not "brooking the Inclination of a young Laſs, whom he had "long courted, ſeemed to have for ſome more youthful "than himſelf, while towards him ſhe ſhewed only In-"difference, intreated her to walk with him in the Fields; "not forgetting to take with him his unreaſonably-loaded "Fowling-Piece. When there, he peremptorily asked her "this Queſtion: Will you have me, or no? To which ab-"rupt Quere ſhe returned only the dreadful Monoſyllable, "No.——Whereupon, without more ado, this unhappy, "deſpairing Lunatic, of at leaſt 50, as is reported, ground-"ing the But-End of his Piece, and fixing the Muzzle to "his Throat, with a Rule he puſhed down the Trigger, "the Conſequence of which was, ſhattering his Skull, "Brains, &c. in 1000 Pieces with near a Handful of "Hail Shot.——This rare Inſtance of True-Love (which "is ſcarce of a Months ſtanding) would, methinks, have "much better ſuited former Days, when Knight-Errantry "was more in Faſhion, and the Females of our Species are "ſaid to have been moſt inſufferably cruel."

MONDAY, Aug. 10. Friday laſt, Nathaniel Gould, of Hackney, Eſq; one of the Directors of the Bank, received a Letter, directed to him, from ſome unknown Perſons, who intimate their being Gentlemen reduced by Faſt-living, and going to viſit our American Plantations, in hopes of retrieving their loſt Fortunes. Therein they required him, under Penalty of incurring imminent Danger of Life, to depoſit the Sum of 30 Pieces, under three Bricks, within three Yards of the Corner of the Wall behind Buckingham-Houſe, going to Conſtitution-Hill, exactly at Ten that Night; which Monies, they ſaid, were to help defray their Expences thither: Some will have it, that theſe reduced Gentlemen were ſo reaſonable as to demand only ten Guineas. The Bricks were afterwards found ſituated according to Direction: But Mr. Gould (not haſtening to comply with ſo modeſt a Requeſt) next Day received another ſtill more peremptory Summons; doubtleſs from the ſame Quarter, the Writers ſwearing if the Guineas were not ſent that very Evening, they would have his Blood; concluding with, Utrum horum mavis accipe: "Take your "Choice." Sure theſe Gentlemen are in haſte to be on their Voyage, and apprehenſive of loſing their Paſſage.

Saturday Morn. laſt, Wm. Gibſon (the famous Quaker, who lately made ſuch Confuſion among his Brethren, and has taken the London-Aſſurance Coffee-Houſe in Birchin-Lane) hung up his Sign, on one Side of which is repreſented a Perſon lying on his Back, his Hat and Wig by him, and his Head bloody, ſeveral hurrying from him to hide themſelves behind a Buſh; and at ſome Diſtance is repreſented a watery Place, on the farther Side of which the ſame Perſon is ſeen wading, having a Crutch under one Arm, making toward a Stile, on which is a Perſon holding one of his Crutches, and endeavouring to help him over, from whence a Path leads to ſome Houſes on a Hill. The other Side of the Sign varies only in that he is lying on his Face; and in another, on the Back-ſide of the Houſe, he is ſitting on the Ground, wiping off his Blood and Tears with a Handkerchief; in each is repreſented the Moon riſing; and under, in Capital Letters,

GIBSON FROM GRACECHURCH-STREET.

From this Sign he would have it underſtood, that the bloody Perſon lying on the Ground is himſelf; thoſe going from him to hide themſelves, Quakers who had abuſed him: The Perſon helping him thro' the Water towards the Houſes on the Hill, a Friend who greatly aſſiſted him in his Troubles, and in putting him into this Houſe.

Friday laſt two Horſes, lately ſeized laden with Tea (one of them a very good one) being condemned, at Greenwich, fall to the Uſe of the King, the Informers, and Cuſtom-Houſe Officers; but the Tea, with a great many Handkerchiefs, are ſent to the King's Warehouſes. The Officers who ſeized this Tea, believe by the Manner of Packing it came from Oſtend, and alſo that the other 17 Loads, which paſſed thro' Eltham, came from the ſame Quarter.

The great Torch-Thiſtles, which began to ſhew their Bloſſoms laſt Summer, at Mr. Cowell's Garden at Hoxton, are now flowering with extraordinary Strength and Beauty, one of them being more than ten Feet high, which invites great Numbers of People, of all Ranks, every Day to admire the Curioſity, as well as to obſerve his Great American Aloe, whoſe Flower-Stem is upwards of 20 Feet in Height.

We hear, that Meſſrs. Stert and Goddard, two of the Commiſſaries for adjuſting the Loſſes, &c. ſuſtained by the Spaniards (and who are at preſent at Mr. Stert's Seat near Plymouth) will depart for Spain about the End of this Month.

We have Advice from the Hague, the 15th Inſt. N. S. that Count Zinzendorf, the Emperor's Miniſter there, had, by way of Diſcourſe, mentioned an Expedient which might ſatisfy both his Imperial Majeſty and the Queen of Spain; namely, by placing (inſtead of 6000 Spaniards, or 6000 Swiſſers) 3000 Engliſh, and 3000 Germans, of the Empire's Troops, in the Towns of Tuſcany and Parma.

TUESDAY, Aug. 11. Saturday laſt Mr. North, a noted Upholſter in Bartholomew-Cloſe, was by Mr. Dobbyns, cut for the Stone, from whom (in leſs than a Minute) was taken a very large one: There were preſent, Dr. Bamber, and ſeveral eminent Surgeons, viz. Mr. Palmer, Mr. Ruſſieur, Mr. Freke, Mr. Tutter, &c.

Daniel Delaval and Tho. Bret were, Yeſterday, committed to the Poultry Compter by the Ld. Mayor, being charged on the Oaths of John Baily and ſeveral others, for defrauding them of ſeveral Quantities of Goods under falſe Colours and Pretences, there to remain till they can find ſufficient Bail: The former paſſed for a Merchant, and had hired a Houſe on London-Bridge, where he took in Variety of Goods; the other is a Carpenter, and, as we hear, his Confederate.

Thurſday laſt ended the Aſſizes at Bridgwater, for the County of Somerſet, before Mr. Baron Thomſon and Mr. Juſtice Lee, when the three following Malefactors received Sentence of Death, viz. Fra. Taylor and Geo. Hipſley for Burglary, who are both reprieved in order to 14 Years Tranſportation; and John White, for the Robbery and Murder of Rob. Sutton; which Fact appears to be exceedingly barbarous. The Caſe was as follows:——The ſaid Sutton was going with a Letter to a Gentleman's Houſe, and meeting with White, told him, if he would ſhew him the Way he would treat him; thereupon he carried him to an Alehouſe by the Road-ſide where he treated him accordingly; after Sutton had paid the Reckoning, he pulled out a gilt Counter, which White took to be Half a Guinea; afterwards White, inſtead of ſhewing him the Way, led him out of it into a By-Place, and taking a Stick from a Hedge, he knocked him down, beat out one of his Eyes, and ran the Stick in at his Mouth, and out at the Side of his Neck, mangling him in a cruel Manner: He is to be hanged in Chains, To-morrow, on the Croſs-Road, at Bratton in Somerſetſhire, near the Place where he committed this inhuman Murder.

Sunday Morn. laſt, a drowned Woman was found in the River, tied with a Cord to a Poſt, at Mortlake.

Laſt Thurſday a Meſſenger was diſpatched to the Court of Spain, with a Demand of the Cedula for ſending to Spaniſh Weſt-India the South-Sea Company's Ship P. William, now waiting in the River only for the ſaid Cedula.

We hear from S. Helen's, that the Troops on board the Tranſports ſailed, laſt Wedneſday, under the Convoy of the Lon Man of War of 50 Guns. The Fleet which is to act in Concert with Spain for introducing Don Carlos into Tuſcany, is, together with that of Spain, to rendezvous in the Height of Veica.

Yeſterday Morn. at Four, a Horſe belonging to Mr. Rob. Underwood, Innkeeper at Henly upon Thames, ſet out from Oxford, and was to go from thence to S. Giles's Pound and back again in 12 Hours, for a Wager of 100 Guineas. He came in three Minutes before Nine, baited about 12 Minutes at Mr. Worſley's at the Stag and Hounds, by S. Giles's Pound, and then ſet out on his Return.

They write from Dover, dated Aug. 9, that they have had a fine Week for their Wheat Harveſt: That they hope the good Weather will hold three or four Days longer, when moſt of that Grain will be in the Barns: That thoſe of Eaſt-Kent have got in all their Wheat, and we have excellent Crops, both there and all thereabouts.

The Counteſs of Tyrconnel is ſo dangerouſly ill, that her Life is deſpaired of.

We alſo learn, that the celebrated Mrs. Oldfeild is very much indiſpoſed, at her Lodgings at Finchley.

It is now currently reported, that the Court will not remove from Windſor till the latter End of Octobir next; and that his Majeſty has been pleaſed to declare his Royal Intention of then returning to St. James's, for the Winter.

We learn, that the Woman's Name is Anne Wood, who was brought to Newgate on a Horſe, laſt Sunday Even. on a violent Suſpicion of murdering her Baſtard Child. She being in a Field near Endfield, called to a Shepherd's Boy, telling him, there was a Child murdered; at which the Lad, being frightened, ran to the Town, brought Aſſiſtance and took her, with the Child's Body in her Lap, without the Head. She at firſt refuſed to make any Confeſſion, and ſtill behaves ſo much like a Lunatic, that her Fellow-Priſoners not able to bear with her, ſhe was Yeſterday removed to one of the Cells.—"This unhappy Wretch "ſeems to be of the ſame Sort of Lunatics as thoſe men-"tioned among our Saturday's Articles."

WEDNESDAY, Aug. 12. This Day's Journal acquaints us with the following farther Particulars of the unfortunate young Woman abovementioned. The Child ſhe is ſuſpected to have murdered was a Girl of about a Month old. She was Servant to a Tallow Chandler in Cheſſount-Street, from which Service ſhe was diſmiſſed on the Diſcovery of her being with Child by the Apprentice; and tho' the Officers of that Pariſh had obliged him to give Security to indemnify them, yet no Care was taken of her; and the Extremity ſhe was reduced to, as is preſumed, might have deprive her of her Senſes. It is ſaid, that after ſhe had cut off the Child's Head, ſhe buried the Body in a Field near Durance in Endfield Highway, but took it up again, and ſhewed it about, telling every one what ſhe had done, and being carried before Juſtice Marſh, of Green-Street, ſhe ſigned to a Confeſſion of the Murder: The Child's Head is not yet found, and ſhe being examined about it, ſaid, "She ſaw the Devil fly away with it."

We have alſo another odd Story from Weſton-Underwood near Oney in Buckinghamſhire, that a few Days ago a Carpenter, having a little Wheat near that Place, went with his Apprentice to reap it: The former ſtruck the latter for not doing his Buſineſs according to his Inſtructions, the other returned the Blow, both fighting with their Sickles; in the Combat the Man ſtruck the Maſter with the Point of his Sickle with ſuch Violence, that it ran in at one Side of his Belly and out at the other, tearing his Entrails to Pieces, eſpecially as he was endeavouring to pull it out, ſo that he died on the Spot.

But the Fray which happened Yeſterday Afternoon, in the Artillery-Ground by Moor-fields, was not attended with any ſuch Tragical Cataſtrophe as theſe. It was (when the Green Regiment of the City Militia were exerciſing) between a Gentleman and one of the Soldiers; in which the Gentleman being likely to have the better, ſome Officers and others came to the Soldier's Aſſiſtance, over-powered the Gentleman, and took him Priſoner of War. This Priſoner was then carried in Triumph to the Head of the Regiment, a Council of War immediately held and the Merits of the Cauſe maturely canvaſſed. After due Deliberation the Gentleman obtained his Diſcharge.

Wm. Lowfield, an Officer of the Poultry Compter, who lately kept a Hoſier and Glover's Shop next Child's Coffee-houſe in St. Paul's Church-yard (who was advertiſed and ten Guineas Reward offered for apprehending him within a certain limited Time) ſurrendered himſelf to the Ld. Mayor laſt Saturday, and was admitted to Bail.

Yeſterday Morn. the Wife of one Rawlins, a Journeyman Turner in Jermyn-Street, St. James's, was ſafely delivered of four Boys, all living.

The South-Sea Company ſent this Year 20 Ships to Greenland, 12 of which are arrived. Six of them have brought nine Whales; viz. the Vigilance three, the Reſtoration three, the Eagle one, the Expedition one and one Third; the Centaur and the Induſtry only two Thirds between them.——The Unicorn (as we obſerved) is on the Gunfleet, paſt Hopes of Recovery; and ſeven are hourly expected.——They ſent the Succeſs and the Phœnix to Davis's Streights, which are both returned, having caught three Whales between them.——The Fiſhery in Greenland has been very unſucceſsful; the Dutch, Bremeners, and Hamburghers, who had there 120 Ships, caught but 26 Whales; and the French and Biſcainers, with 36 Ships, only four.

The great Undertaking of making the new Common-Sewer, from Scotland-Yard to Cleaveland-Court, St. James's, which was begun laſt Summer will be finiſhed next Saturday.

Yeſterday the Indian Princes, with their Attendants, went to ſee the Diverſion at Sadler's-Wells, on which Occaſion there was a vaſt Number of Spectators.——One of theſe noble Americans (I cannot certainly learn which) is aſſuredly to be married, next Week, to a very agreeable young Gentlewoman, of French Extraction.

Friday laſt, the Officers of the Exciſe ſeized ſeveral 100 Gallons of Spirits, concealed at a Diſtiller's in Monmouth-Street: And next Day they ſeized about 150 Gallons more, at a Diſtiller's in Pall-Mall.——By Virtue of a late Act of Parliament, they are to pay 5*s. per* Gallon Duty to the King, and be fined 50*l.* for not entering the ſame.

The Horſe which was made to run, laſt Monday, from Oxford to St. Giles's Pound, and back to Oxford, performed his mercileſs Task in 11 Hours and a Half, and ſo got his Owner 100 Guineas, winning the Wager by Half an Hour; but died in 21 Minutes after.——"This is "riding a free Horſe to Death, with a Vengeance! a vile, "inhumane Practiſe too much in Vogue. A good-natured "Gentleman ſaid this Morning in a Coffee-Houſe; That, "for his own Satisfaction, he would freely have loſt 10 "Guineas, if the Horſe had loſt it by Half an Hour."

THURSDAY, Aug. 13. We hear that the South-Sea Company have received Advice from Benj. Keene, Eſq; his Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of Spain, that his Catholic Majeſty had appointed Don Luis Beaufort to aſſiſt in the Meaſurement of the Company's Ships P. William now in Long Reach, bound for Cartagena and Porto Bello; and that the ſaid Gentleman will ſpeedily be here: As will alſo the Cedula for the ſaid Ship's Admiſſion at thoſe Ports, it being now paſſing thro' the ſeveral Offices in due Form.——As alſo, that the ſaid Miniſter has now ſent more Duplicates of Cedulas for Reſtitution, and for the re-eſtabliſhing the ſaid Company's Factories in New Spain.

Tho. Barnes of Wiltſhire, Eſq; has made a Bett of 1000 Guineas, that he rides 200 Miles and walks 30 in one Day: To be performed in October next at New-Market: Half Forfeit.

One Allen a Milk-Woman in Swallow-Street, having had ſome Words with her Husband, told him, when he went to work Yeſterday Morn. that ſhe would hang herſelf; which ſhe according did, as her Bed's Feet. "More Lunatics."

Notice is given to all Peers, Peereſſes, and Privy Counſellors, that the Court goes into Mourning, on Sunday the 16th Inſt. for her Highneſs Benedicta Henrietta, Dutcheſs Dowager of Brunſwick and Lunenburg. The Ladies on publick Days, to wear black Silks, plain Linnen, black and white Fans, and no coloured Tippets, and on private Days white or gray Silks; the Men to wear black Swords and Buckles, and plain Linnen, and on private Days to wear Gray.

Sir John Gonſon, the Chairman, and the Committee of Juſtices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, appointed by the laſt Seſſions for Suppreſſing the Night-Houſes, Night-Cellars, and other diſorderly Houſes, in and near Drury-Lane, meet twice every Week, either at Covent-Garden or St. Martin's Veſtries; and have iſſued out a great Number of Warrants againſt Perſons keeping ſuch pernicious Receptacles of idle and diſorderly People within the Pariſhes of St. Martin's in the Fields, and St. Paul's Covent-Garden, and have, within three Weeks paſt, committed to Priſon, and bound over to the Seſſions, 26 Perſons for Keeping ſuch Houſes, and ſent to Tothill-Fields Bridewell, to hard Labour, near 60 Vagrants, of both Sexes, apprehended by the High-Conſtable of Weſtminſter, and other Conſtables, at thoſe Places; among which are ſeveral Laſſes of eſpecial Note in the Hundreds of Drury, and a certain Bailiff who is a moſt noted Champion of thoſe Ladies, and commonly called the SOLLICITOR-GENERAL of the HUNDREDS. Multitudes of People go there daily to viſit theſe Gentry; and particularly the celebrated Mrs. Kate Hackabout, who had long reigned abſolutely the Game-Hen of Bridges-Street, from the Play-Houſe a good way down; and Wo to the Nymph who durſt preſume to exhibit her Wares within her Diſtrict. Francis Hackabout, who had the Misfortune to make his Exit at Tyburn, a few Seſſions paſt, was this worthy Gentlewoman's Brother; and who was ſo remarkably clamorous while in his Cell, that he greatly annoyed a certain Gentleman, who had the Misfortune to be his near Neighbour.
